Gospel Reflection

"...stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Matthew 25

In baptism we are called to lives of holiness and devotion until He comes to lead us to the heavenly wedding feast. Jesus is coming again but we do not know the day or the hour. We need to keep vigil during this dark time in which our Bridegroom seems long delayed; our soul's lamps filled with the oil of perseverance and desire for God. We seek Him with love, meditating upon His kindness, calling upon His name, striving to be ever more worthy, without spot or blemish when He comes. If we do this we will be counted as wise, and our lamps will not run dry as He leads us into the rich banquet which will satisfy our souls. - Scott Hahn
